ACADEMIC REGALIA

Lending color to the pageantry of the Academic Convocation are the robes and hoods worn by the faculty. This regalia reaches back into the medieval ages when it served a functional as well as ornamental role.

In the late nineteenth century, a conference was held by representatives of American colleges and universities to systemize academic dress. Since then, there have been periodic conferences to revise or reconfirm existing practices.

Essentially, holders of the bachelor's degree wear black robes unadorned. Holders of graduate degrees wear hoods which are lined with the colors of the college conferring the degree and trimmed with the color representing the subject in which the degree was earned. The robe for the doctoral degree is trimmed in velvet and the cap may be adorned with a gold tassel.

The following list reflects the colors which will be found on the hoods worn in the Academic Procession at this Convocation, and the subject each represents.

NOTE ON PHOTOGRAPHY

In an effort to keep this an orderly and dignified ceremony, one which our graduates can remember with pride and enjoyment, guests are requested to remain seated during the entire ceremony and recessional and to refrain from taking pictures of the candidates until after the exercises are completed.

The University has contracted with Florida Photo Marketing, P.O. Box 59-3072, Miami, Florida 33159, to take a full color, close-up photograph of each candidate with the President and graduates will be contacted about purchasing the photographs at a later date.

Your cooperation will ensure that the commencement exercises will run smoothly and that the ceremony itself will become a fitting occasion to mark this significant milestone in the lives of our graduates.
