Performing Artists

Sean P. Murray, Associate Director of Bands. His primary responsibilities include the direction of the Florida Atlantic Marching Owls and supervision of the athletic band program, including the men's and women's basketball bands. Additional responsibilities include teaching courses within the music education curriculum. Dr. Murray holds his Bachelor of Music Education degree, Master of Music Education degree and PhD. from the Florida State University College of Music.

Prior to returning to Florida State, Dr. Murray taught six years of public school in Tampa, Florida. He is a member of FBA, MENC, CBDNA and WASBE. He is also a member of Phi Mu Alpha, Pi Kappa Lambda, and holds honorary memberships in Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi. Dr. Murray is an active guest clinician, conductor, and adjudicator in the state of Florida. He was appointed to the faculty at Florida Atlantic University in 2006.

Kyle Prescott is director of bands and assistant professor of music at Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton. His responsibilities include conducting the Wind Ensemble and coordinating all aspects of a comprehensive university bands program. He also teaches graduate instrumental conducting and various courses in the music education curriculum. Born and reared in the shadow of Mt. St. Helens in Washington State, he holds bachelor of music degrees from the Lionel Hampton School of Music at The University of Idaho, and the master of music and the doctor of musical arts degrees in wind conducting from The University of Texas at Austin, where his principal mentor was professor Jerry F. Junkin.

Prior to his work at UT, Prescott served on the faculty of The University of Great Falls in Montana, and spent eight years conducting high school bands and orchestras in the Pacific Northwest. Ensembles under his direction were twice invited to perform for the convention of MENC: The National Association for Music Education. He has given presentations at the state, regional and national levels on various topics, including assessment methods for large ensembles. Prescott is active as an adjudicator, clinician and guest conductor and maintains memberships in several professional organizations, including MENC, the College Band Directors National Association and Phi Beta Mu, the International Bandmasters' Fraternity. He is also an honorary member of Tau Beta Sigma.
