How fast the cars move! That one in front is a steam engine on wheels; there is a fire in it, and a large i-ron boil-er, with wa-ter. When it gets hot it turns in-to steam; then the guide rings his bell. Ding, dong, bell! Ding, dong, bell! Ting! Then the long train moves off on the i-ron road. Puff! puff! puff! It is al-most out of sight. It goes twice as fast as a horse can run, and does not get tired. Five or six hun-dred peo-ple can go on a jour-ney at one time on a rail-road.

How doth the lit-tle bu-sy bee
Im-prove each shi-ning hour,
It gath-ers hon-ey all the day
From ev-e-ry o-pen-ing flow-er.

Two little dogs were basking in the cinders ;

Two little cats were playing in the windows ;

When two little mice popped out of a hole

And up to a fine piece of cheese they stole.

The two little dogs cried " cheese is nice !"

But the two little cats jumped down in a trice,

And cracked the bones of the two little mice.

MARY'S LITTLE LAMB.

MARY had a little lamb,
 Its fleece was white as snow ;
 And everywhere that Mary went,
 The lamb was sure to go.

TWINKLE, TWINKLE, LITTLE STAR.

TWINKLE, twinkle, little star ;
 How I wonder what you are !
 Up above the world so high,
 Like a diamond in the sky.

When the glorious sun is set,
 When the grass with dew is wet,
 Then you show your little light,
 Twinkle, twinkle, all the night.

In the dark blue sky you keep,
 And often through my curtains peep ;
 For you never shut your eye,
 Till the sun is in the sky.

As your bright and tiny spark
 Lights the traveller in the dark,
 Though I know not what you are,
 Twinkle, twinkle, little star.

CHILD'S EVENING PRAYER.

O FATHER, hear my humble prayer,
 And pardon every sin ;
 Bless father, mother, brothers dear,
 My sisters, friends and kin.

And bless our servants, black or white ;
 Yea, bless all human kind !
 And in that land of love and light,
 Grant us thy rest to find.

Always do to others what you would have others do to you.

READING LESSON.—THE OAK TREE.

The oak is one of the largest trees that grow in this part of the world. It bears nuts, called acorns; they taste bitter, but they are very good food for pigs. An acorn put into the ground, may in time become a large tree. Oaks live to a very great age, and the wood is very useful.

If all the world was apple pie,
And all the sea was ink,
And all the cheese was bread and meat,
What should we have for drink?
It's enough to make an old man
Scratch his head and think!

LOUISA'S LITTLE SISTER.

I HAVE a little sister,
 She is only four years old,
 But to us at home who love her,
 She's worth her weight in gold.
 We often play together,
 And I begin to find
 That to make my sister happy,
 I must be very kind—

And always very gentle
 When we run about and play,
 Nor ever think of taking
 Her little toys away.
 I must not even tease her,
 Nor ever angry be,
 With the darling little sister
 That GOD has given me.

For oh! if he should take her
 To Heaven away from me,
 And leave me here without her,
 How lonely I should be!
 No one would sleep beside me,
 If she was always gone;
 And oh! how sad 'twould make me,
 To try to play alone!

And how I should remember
 All I had done before,
 And wish while she was with me,
 I'd tried to love her more.
 So very kind and gentle
 I'll always try to be,
 With the darling little sister
 That GOD has given me.
