ACADEMIC REGALIA

Lending color to the pageantry of the Academic Convocation are the academic robes and hoods worn by the faculty. This regalia reaches back into the medieval ages when it served a functional as well as an ornamental role, separating the learned men from other groups and offering warmth and protection.

In America in the late nineteenth century, a conference was held by representatives of colleges and universities to bring some order and system to the custom of academic dress. Since then, there have been periodic conferences to revise or reconfirm existing practices.

Essentially, holders of the bachelor's degree wear black robes unadorned. Holders of the master's degree wear hoods which are lined with the colors of the college conferring the degree and trimmed with the color representing the subject in which the degree was earned. The doctoral robe is adorned with velvet and is also worn with the hood suitably ornamented.

Holders of degrees from foreign universities or religious orders wear the entire academic costume as decreed by the conferring institution.

The following list reflects the colors which will be found on the hoods worn in the Academic Procession at this Convocation, and the subject each represents.

Art, Letters, Humanities	White	Library Science	Lemon
Commerce, Business	Drab	Music	Pink
Economics	Copper	Nursing	Apricot
Education	Light Blue	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Engineering	Orange	Physical Education	Sage Green
Fine Arts	Brown	Science	Golden Yellow
Journalism	Crimson	Theology	Scarlet
Law	Purple	Speech	Silver Grey

ODE TO FLORIDA ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

By the blue Atlantic's waters where America began,
Where the courage of Columbus found a brave new world for man,
Where the glory of the sunrise beams on Florida's fair land,
Ancient heritage of knowledge grasps tomorrow's outstretched hand.

Let us pledge, O Alma Mater, heart and hand in purpose high,
As tomorrow's bold explorers span the space beyond the sky.
Let us dedicate our future to a brave new liberty,
Let us live our bright tomorrow in the truth that makes us free.

Donald H. Andrews
