AN UNRESTRICTED GRANT OF $5000 has been given the ocean engineering department by Amoco Production Foundation, New Orleans, La. P.J. EARLY, division engineer, presented the gift to DR. KENNETH R. WILLIAMS and PROFESSOR CHARLES R. STEPHAN. The grant will be used for department scholarships and other support of the program. Twelve FAU graduates and six cooperative work/study students have been employed by Amoco Production Company. In addition, three of the work/study students have also been employed by the company.

DR. HANS MARGOLIUS will be presented Wed., October 20, at 8:00 p.m. by the philosophy department in conjunction with Phi Sigma Tau (Philosophy Honorary Society). His paper is titled, "The Uses of Philosophy in Life." The lecture will be held in DR. ROBERT SCHWARZ'S home.

THE FIRST NATIONAL TRAVELLING EXHIBITION OF FACULTY WORK sponsored by the department of art has begun its second show at West Liberty State College, West Liberty, W. Va. The exhibition's first showing was at Broward Community College. The exhibition will be on continuous tour through July, 1972, appearing at colleges and universities in Pennsylvania, Kansas, Utah, Vermont, New York, Wisconsin, and South Dakota. The show will be in Florida again in December at Palm Beach Junior College Gallery and at the FAU Gallery during January of 1972.

Deadline for next issue of UPDATE October 25

THE NEW DEPARTMENT OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERING has received its first gift. A brand new heat pump, worth $1000, has been donated through the FAU Foundation by Rheem Air Conditioning, Boca Raton.

JAMES SCHIETINGER has two series of his work exhibited in the "Photo Media Show" in New York for a month. The show consists of elements and techniques of photography experienced as an artistic medium.

DR. MARC R. FEIX, professor of physics at the University of Nancy, France, is conducting a series of graduate seminars at FAU in October and November. He is lecturing to graduate students on computational models in plasma physics, on non-homogenous plasma and on the stability of plasmas.

LAWRENCE LERFALD is the recipient of one of three equal prizes in the latest Broward Art Guild Show. The title of his etching is "Embryonic Repast," and may be seen at the Fort Lauderdale home of the Art Guild through October. The prize was a $15.00 membership in the Guild.

DR. MICHAEL SCHWARTZ, professor and chairman of sociology, eight senior students and the recipient of the S.E. Wimberly Honor Scholarship were cited for superiority in teaching and academic achievement in the University's third annual Scholarship Convocation Thursday, Oct. 7. The S.E. Wimberly Honors Scholarship, a $1000 award, went to INA TRESKA. The eight University Scholars are: ALAN D. OREFICE, HOPE E. STORMS, GREGORY S. WEAVER, RUTH RUGGLES, JoELLEN GEISEL, MRS. DARYL S. MARCOUX, JAMES M. WILLIAMS, and JOSEPH C. GERWENS, JR.

DR. ROSS OGLESBY, state executive secretary of the American Association of University Professors, spoke to the faculty at large October 14 on current problems facing faculty, such as legislation affecting status of faculty, rulings by the legislature and the Board of Regents, the 12-hour ruling, and the wage-price freeze. DR. OGLESBY is on the faculty of Florida State University.

FAU ECOLOGICAL ACTION GROUP meets every Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in BS 102. All are invited.

THE SECOND (WINTER) QUARTER TEXTBOOK requirements for on-campus, Dade and Continuing Education are due in the Bookstore by Nov. 5. Accurate completion of the requisitions is important, including the approval of the department chairman, to prevent delays in processing of orders. Faculty are reminded to order their own desk copies.
