

DL: (Dear Lord)

I am to inform you that the injunction to stay the (___?___) you at the (suit ?) of (wills ?) has been adjudged insufficient on account of the execution being (secured ?) before the injunction was filed. The determination of the court took place this morning after (J ?) had apprehended the (___?___) (s___?___).

I would advise you to supersede the execution, as by the 1st day of (___?___) nigh, the event will be known whether any if the land (lays ?) foul or not. If it does the Chancellor will renew the injunction and (___?___) the money: if paid to the (represented ?).

This disappointment has (___?___) on a (___?___) if my forgetting to file then (band or bard ?), which the court (sought ?) a (___?___) (___?___) insisted on, (___?___) the (g___?___) of the Bar, and an unworthy advantage taken.

I have called on your house this day, (___?) did (___?___) you, I am (obliged ?) to (ann___?___), this event as court has been (sit___?), since yesterday (there ? then ?).

If you incline to supersede, like it been done before the court (agrees ?).

(___?___) (Ech___?___)

Richard Ridgley

*(in pencil: M.O.C. from Maryland)

Wednesday 17___?___

(symbol ?)

The court has adjudged (___?___) (symbol ?) (Monday ?) (___?___), when if I can be of any service as am to join you in the (___?___). -----command (___?___).

R. Ridgely

To

Ion Studson (symbol ?)

(_ ? _)

END.